

Specialized fulfillment

Located in Tukwila, Washington, the Zones west coast facility is dedicated to project-based services for customers with shipping locations in the western half of the US. The center's specially-trained staff is dedicated to providing exceptional integration and distribution services. And quality control checks ensure the accuracy and completeness of the work performed.

Distribution Center Key Facts

- > Local and box-less delivery available
- > Integration center located on site
- > Experienced distribution team professionals
- > In-stock items ship same day if ordered by noon Pacific Time
- > Last daily pickup: 4:00 p.m. Pacific Time
- > Over 29,000 square feet
- > Carrier of choice is FedEx; many others available
- > Centrally located between Seattle and Tacoma for optimal distribution

Services Offered

- > Custom labeling/bar coding
- > Custom packaging
- > Special kitting
- > Asset management and disposal (project management, asset retrieval, DoD disk wipes and asset tagging/serial number reporting)
- > Custom setup and provisioning of portable devices and printers

Integration Center Facts

- > Over 3,000 square feet
- > Imaging network is fully independent from the Zones production network and the Internet to ensure the safety and security of customer data
- > Secure FTP server dedicated to client data transfer
- > Fully certified technical staff with a minimum of A+ certification. Some technicians maintain additional, higher level certifications such as Server+, desktop, laptop and vendor-specific certifications.
- > In addition to our full-time technicians, a pool of contract technicians are on-call for special projects
- > Every integrated unit is quality control checked by a senior level technician for completeness and accuracy of the work performed
- > Bench space to configure and image up to 100 PCs at a time
- > Image server with over 5TB of usable data storage
- > Four server racks dedicated to customer equipment
- > Five IBM blade server chassis and two HP blade server chassis to allow for configuration, burn-in and testing of IBM and HP blade servers

