

Cisco Webex Teams puts the work in teamwork.

Continuous collaboration before, during, and after the meeting.

37%
of employee time is spent in meetings.¹

72%
of executives rated effective team communication and collaboration as key drivers of business success.²

Whether meetings are planned in advance or held whenever – and wherever – inspiration strikes, Cisco Webex Teams helps you make the most of your team’s time.

With continuous team collaboration, people can connect effortlessly, making meetings intuitive and not an interruption.

An important customer calls asking for a proposal and needs it fast! With little time to prepare, you create a new Cisco Webex Teams space and add your team members.

Within your dedicated space, you share the request using Cisco Webex Teams messaging and post relevant documents using file sharing. The team can work through the agenda together and select a time to meet.

10:00AM

At meeting time, team members just click the Cisco Webex Teams link on their calendar to join. Powered by Cisco Webex Meetings, users can expect a seamless experience on any device, wherever they are.

10:06AM

During the meeting, team members speak face-to-face using video, share their applications and screens, and even brainstorm ideas using the whiteboard.

87%

of remote workers feel more connected to their team when using video.³

11:12AM

After the meeting, team members message about action items in your Cisco Webex Teams space and post revised files so everyone can find the most updated version.

1:55PM

The conversation continues for as long as you need. Team members message their task updates, share files, stay connected on deliverables and deadlines, and even initiate additional meetings—either scheduled or on demand.

Cisco was recently identified as a leader in five collaboration-focused Gartner Magic Quadrants, including web conferencing and group video systems.

3:42PM

You deliver the proposal to the customer, ahead of the 5:00 p.m. deadline. Plus all files, messages, whiteboard drawings, and action items are saved in your dedicated Cisco Webex Teams space so you never lose context.

6:25PM

The customer calls—you've won the deal! Other vendors were unable to provide viable proposals within the short deadline window. You share the good news via your Cisco Webex Teams space, and the team makes plans to celebrate!

Cisco Webex Teams for continuous workflow before, during, and after the meeting.
